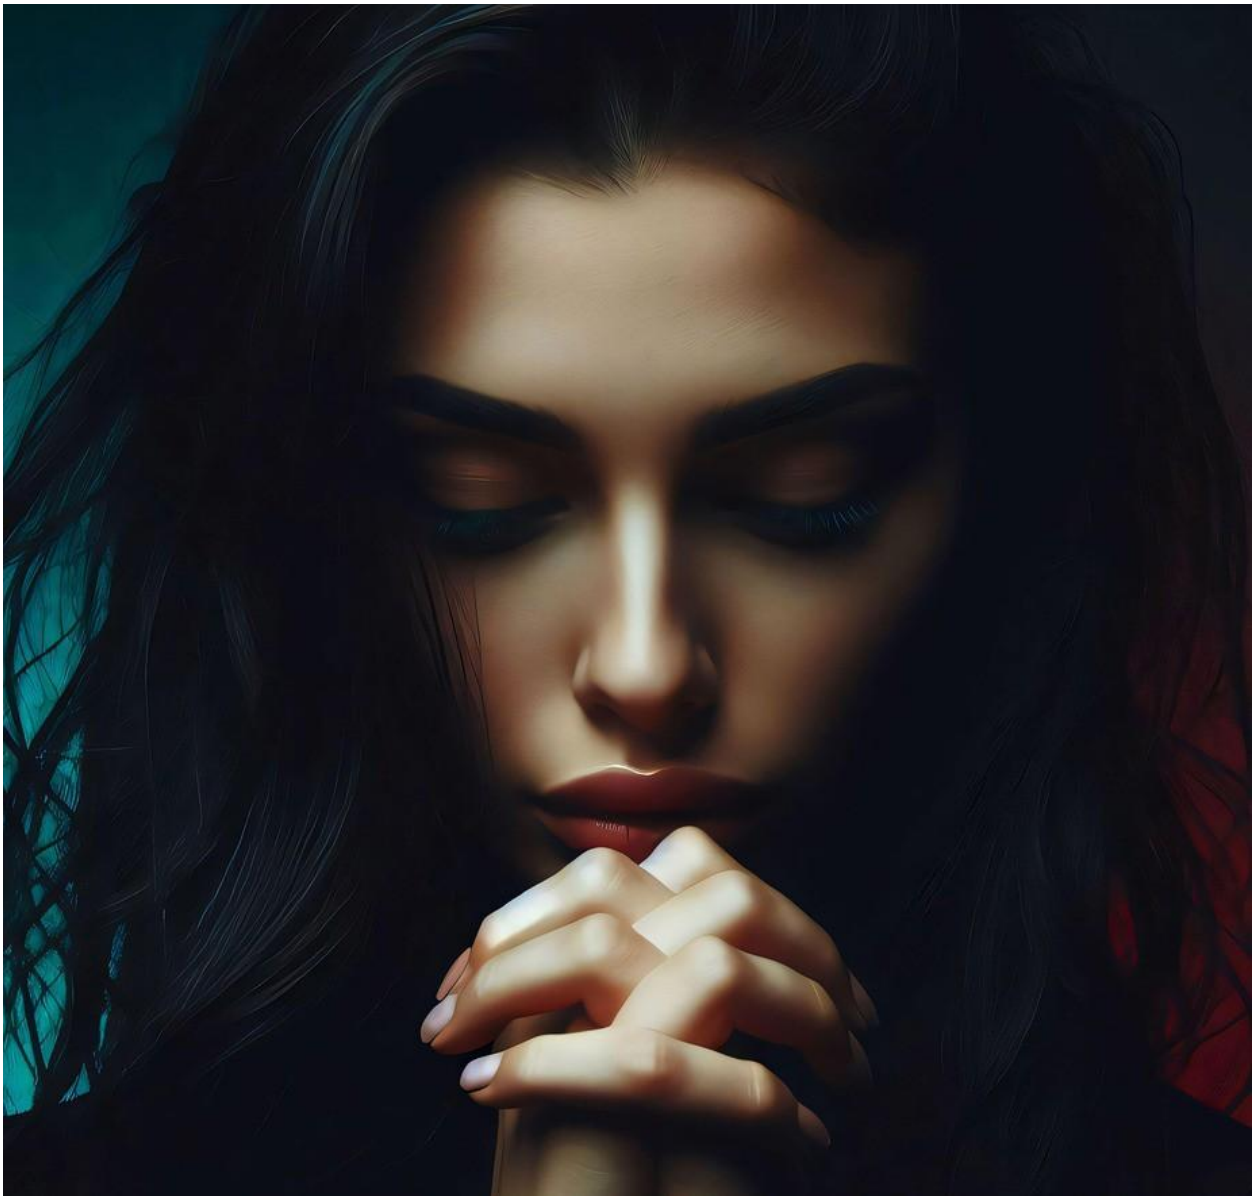
Powerful Prayers Against Enemies | Claim Your Victory In Jesus Now

God has destined you for greatness. But the enemy never wants to see you happy, successful, healthy, etc. The Bible doesn't forbid Christians to say prayers against their enemies in life.



Remember this — in life, your enemies are important just like your friends. A preacher once said; enemies bring rewards (eg. David vs Goliath) and friends bring comfort. The Lord is about to throw a party before you in the presence of your enemies — Psalms 23:5. Amen! If life has forced you to seek divine help from Christ Jesus, then pay close attention here. This article alone might not be enough... Brace yourself. I believe in imprecatory prayers and I know they produce great results. Let me help you know how to properly say prayers against your enemies. Before that, I think you may be interested in reading some Bible verses for protection. Be in the full armor of God!

I often tell my lovely friends and readers that this world is full of darkness; I have seen it and I have seen the Light too. If you don't want to invoke the intervention of God's power; you can use these simple ways to deal with those annoying haters and fake people giving you bad vibes.

The spiritual warfare for instance is very real and so; Christians must know how to fight the good fight without getting weary. It's not a joke to be a target of the enemy who also assigns demonic contracts against you. As an evangelist, I have had my share of this so I know what I'm talking about. Glory be to the Lord for redeeming me from all demonic and human operations against me. He is my Rock, refuge now and forevermore.

Some enemies lurk in the darkness and others too operate under broad daylight. Your strength can't do this alone. Those who delight in your destruction are strong and more than enough. Some of them are invisible.

Kind David lamented:

"Those who hate me without cause are more numerous than the hairs of my head. Those who want to destroy me, my enemies for no reason, outnumber me. They make me repay what I did not steal!" (Psalms 64:4).

This is a very sensitive and controversial topic so I have to be very cautious. Do you feel like praying against your enemies? Hmm... Why not pray for them instead? Oh, you deserve Justice! And that's right!

The blood of Abel cried out for vengeance, but the blood of Jesus Christ cries out for forgiveness. Even on the cross, he prayed to the Father to forgive his enemies.

I'm not trying to prevent you from demanding the Justice you so deserve. But you must be in a good stance before you can say any prayer against your enemies. There are times you can pray for justice and there are times that you can simply forgive.

But if your enemy is not turning away from his evil deeds — but keep on bruising your old wound; then he needs to be disciplined by God!

What Makes You Seek For Prayers Against Enemies?

First search through your heart. Is it full of bitterness, anger, hatred, jealousy, or any evil thoughts? You see, God delights more in saving people by bringing them into the light. However, if someone has touched the "eyes of God" then that person must be punished!.

God detests evil and disobedience. And while the Bible teaches us to pray for our enemies; it also encourages us to pray against our enemies; we must know when we should go in for any of these.

The evil one who wants to destroy you without a cause wouldn't go unpunished! Because the Bible has made it clear that whatever a man sows; so shall he reap. Any evil thing they plot against the Children of God will backfire in Jesus' name!

"The LORD is slow to anger but great in power; the LORD will certainly not allow the wicked to go unpunished" (Nahum 1:3).

In this post, I will cover some of the reasons you should pray against your enemies and how to do that effectively.

Many of us have been going through persistent attacks from the enemy. And surely these kinds of attacks must stop through the power of God. When you say an imprecatory prayer; you flex the muscles of God to use His rod of Justice.

Prayer Is Your Greatest Weapon

The power of God can redeem you from both spiritual and physical attacks from the enemy. It would be unnecessary to avenge yourself. Oh no! That is not your portion. Leave it into the hands of God and watch him give you justice!

"Do not avenge yourselves, dear friends, but give place to God's wrath, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay," says the Lord" (Romans 12:19).

Yes, we want God to repay our enemies on our behalf or a friend's behalf. That battle is not yours. Give it to God.

His righteous judgment will vindicate you from evil people. Remember that vengeance is a retributive justice of God. And I believe anyone who calls on him for justice would be heard.

King David said several imprecatory prayers because the pain his enemies were inflicting on him was becoming unbearable. He said some of the most acidic prayers you could ever think of.

I know I'm touching on a very controversial topic. Some argue —in this age of Christianity such prayers hauled at enemies are unscriptural. That's never true. Light and darkness cannot stay together in peace. If you could acknowledge the fact that the real enemies are not mere humans but spiritual forces that come to steal, destroy and kill (John 10:10), you would be more acidic in your prayers than David. Our struggle is not against flesh and blood but spiritual rulers and wickedness (Ephesians 6:12).

• David prayed against Saul and his army severally but when he had the opportunity on two different occasions to kill him, he refused —hence leaving it into the hands of the Lord.

• David's son Absalom declared himself king on the throne. He raised an army against his father.

David recognized that his real enemies weren't humans but spiritual forces backing them to destroy. He cried bitterly when Absalom's death was announced to him. (2 Samuel 18:33)

David demanded God's righteous judgment in all his trials. Because God searches through all hearts and observes every secret motive to reward or punish accordingly.

"I, the LORD, probe into people’s minds. I examine people’s hearts. I deal with each person according to how he has behaved. I give them what they deserve based on what they have done" (Jeremiah 17:10).

So if you believe it is time for God to righteously deal with your enemies; then get ready to use Psalms to pray against your enemies.

Ignorance of the enemy's schemes is a big disaster. Now, let me continue. David used the Lord's weapons from His armory to pray against enemies, you can also make use of this.

"The LORD has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans." — Jeremiah 50:25

Powerful Prayers Against Enemies - From King David

You may put yourself in the shoes of King David when his enemies were doing their best to destroy his life.

He wrote this prayer in the Book of Psalms when Saul and his warriors surrendered his house to murder him - Psalms 59:1-17.

"Deliver me from my enemies, my God! Protect me from those who attack me! Deliver me from evildoers! Rescue me from violent men! For look, they wait to ambush me; powerful men stalk me, but not because I have rebelled or sinned, O LORD. Though I have done nothing wrong, they are anxious to attack. Spring into action and help me! Take notice of me!

You, O LORD God, the invincible warrior, the God of Israel, rouse yourself and punish all the nations! Have no mercy on any treacherous evildoers! They return in the evening; they growl like a dog and prowl around outside the city. Look, they hurl insults at me and openly threaten to kill me, for they say, “Who hears?”

But you, O LORD, laugh in disgust at them; you taunt all the nations. You are my source of strength! I will wait for you! For God is my refuge. The God who loves me will help me; God will enable me to triumph over my enemies.

Do not strike them dead suddenly, because then my people might forget the lesson. Use your power to make them homeless vagabonds and then bring them down, O Lord who shields us! They speak sinful words. So let them be trapped by their pride and by the curses and lies they speak!

Angrily wipe them out! Wipe them out so they vanish! Let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth! They return in the evening; they growl like a dog and prowl around outside the city. They wander around looking for something to eat; they refuse to sleep until they are full.

As for me, I will sing about your strength; I will praise your loyal love in the morning. For you are my refuge and my place of shelter when I face trouble. You are my source of strength! I will sing praises to you! For God is my refuge, the God who loves me."

Prayer Number 2 — Psalms From King David

I want us to take one more prayer against the enemy from Psalms 140:1-13. He wrote down a lot of prayers against his persecutors

"O LORD, rescue me from wicked men! Protect me from violent men, who plan ways to harm me. All day long they stir up conflict. Their tongues wound like a serpent; a viper’s venom is behind their lips.

O LORD, shelter me from the power of the wicked! Protect me from violent men, who plan to knock me over. Proud men hide a snare for me; evil men spread a net by the path; they set traps for me.

I say to the LORD, “You are my God.” O LORD, pay attention to my plea for mercy! O Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, you shield my head in the day of battle. O LORD, do not let the wicked have their way! Do not allow their plan to succeed when they attack!

As for the heads of those who surround me – may, the harm done by their lips overwhelm them! May he rain down fiery coals upon them! May he throw them into the fire! From bottomless pits, they will not escape.

A slanderer will not endure on the earth; calamity will hunt down a violent man and strike him down. I know that the LORD defends the cause of the oppressed and vindicates the poor. Certainly the godly will give thanks to your name; the morally upright will live in your presence."

Other Helpful Prayers To Destroy Your Enemies

1. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, by the power of his cross, his blood, and his resurrection, I bind you Satan, the spirits, powers, and forces of darkness, the nether world, and the evil forces of nature. I take authority over all curses, hexes, demonic activity, and spells directed against me, my relationships, ministry, air space, finances, and the work of my hands; and I break them by the power and authority of the risen Lord Jesus Christ. I bind all demonic interaction, interplay, and communications between spirits sent against me, and send them directly to Jesus Christ for him to deal with as he wills. I ask forgiveness for, and denounce all negative inner vows that I have made with the enemy, and ask that Jesus Christ release me from these vows and from any bondage they may have held in me. I claim the shed blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, over every aspect of my life for my protection. I pray all these things in the precious name of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

2. Strengthen us in the power of Your might, O God. Dress us in Your armor so that we can stand firm against the schemes of the devil. We know that our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. (Ephesians 6:10-12)

3. "My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold, and my refuge, my savior; you save me from violence. I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies (2 Samuel 22:3-4)."

How The Enemies Fell In Their Traps As Recorded In The Bible

Like I said early before you think about praying against your enemies; make sure you do that with a clean heart. Because God has said to listen to the prayers of the righteous.

"O LORD, rescue me from wicked men! Protect me from violent men, who plan ways to harm me. All day long they stir up conflict. Their tongues wound like a serpent; a viper's venom is behind their lips.
O LORD, shelter me from the power of the wicked! Protect me from violent men, who plan to knock me over. Proud men hide a snare for me; evil men spread a net by the path; they set traps for me.
I say to the LORD, "You are my God." O LORD, pay attention to my plea for mercy!. O Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, you shield my head in the day of battle. O LORD, do not let the wicked have their way! Do not allow their plan to succeed when they attack!."

He will avenge them because vengeance belongs to Him. God has annihilated the enemies of His Children on several occasions as the Bible has recorded. He will do it for you if you pray for justice against your enemies.

How The Hate Of Haman Backfired Through Prayers

From the Book of Esther, the Bible gives us an exemplary lesson about how God deals with the enemies of His Children. Haman conspired to kill Mordecai, the Jews, and possibly Queen Esther. King Ahasuerus unknowingly approved the evil scheme of Haman.

But what did Mordecai, Esther, and the Jewish tribes do? They prayed and fasted for 3 days s. God listened to their cry. And their enemies; led by Haman received the exact evil they plotted.

"So Haman was put to death by hanging him on the pillar he had made for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath became less" (Esther 7:10).

The Bible says to the children of God that no weapon formed against them will prosper. You can read more about this encouraging message from Isaiah 54:17.

May God answer your prayers against your enemies just like He did for Mordecai, Esther, and the Jewish Tribes in Jesus' name!

I believe these samples of prayers would be a great help in fighting against the schemes of your enemies. Never allow them to overcome you with their evil plans.

Because the Lord of Heaven's Armies is on your side. He is ever ready to avenge you. Just say a prayer and trust Him.

God loves His Children —He cares for them and has promised to be on their sides —protect them from evil men and agents of darkness. Keep on praying... Stay blessed in the mighty wings of the Lord.
